

Community Awareness Programme – “The 100 Club”

The aim of the 100 Club is to raise 100 people (or groups of people), willing to pledge some money per month to support us helping others in real need. If you can commit to do this for a twelve month period, it will enable us to provide the level of service our clients need.

If you want to help us, please fill in this form and return it to us by post. If your donation can be gift aided then please complete that section below accordingly.

If you don't feel able to pledge a monthly sum, but would like to help us financially with a one off donation then please send it to us at Community Awareness Programme, 2 Market Street, Wakefield, WF1 1DH.

If you would like to help practically in offering your time and talents, then please contact our Project Manager Kevin Dobson on 01924-381119.

Thank you for showing your concern for the homeless in our city.
